ENTERTAIN JULY 4 . . . The Flying Viennas, the first all-girl trapeze act in the world, will be featured during the 34th annual American Legion Fireworks Show next Monday at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The annual July 4 show begins at 5:15 p.m. and will be climaxed by a spectacular fireworks display. Tickets are priced at $3 for adults and $1.50 for children and may be purchased at all Thrifty Drug Stores.

ANNUAL FIREWORKS SHOW

Salute to Governors Planned at Coliseum

Aerial bombs will burst and kick champions. In the Grand Entry Parade of stars and personalities, Johnny Grant and Chuck Cecil will toss Angel and Dodger baseballs to the crowd. Famed Captain Max Schumacher will fly in by helicopter as a special guest of the American Legion.

The huge fireworks display will climax a show which gets under way at 5:15 p.m. Monday, Pittenger said. During the annual show, an All-American Aerial Circus will perform, a rocket man will fly through space, and the Los Angeles Police Motorcycle Drill Team will give a demonstration of their daredevil skills.

Also on the program are exhibitions by championship gymnasts and acrobats, the traditional International Junior Baseball championship game, and exhibitions by Southern California punt, pass

Dick Sinclair will emcee the show.

The entire spectacular is dedicated to "The USA and Our 54 Governors." The governors have been invited to attend the event as honored guests.

Coliseum gates will open at 5 p.m. Tickets, priced at $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12 years of age and under, are on sale at Thrifty Drug Stores, as well as the Coliseum boxoffice and other ticket agencies.

Scouts Are Awarded At Meeting

Awards were presented to members of Cub Scout Pack 586C at the monthly meeting held at Calle Mayor School.

Earning new merits were: Dale Eikmeier, silver arrow; Paul Woodward and Jimmy Steidley, gold arrow, Robert Dunn, two silver arrows; Steve Frehse, gold and silver arrow. Doug Ayers, denner; and Doug Proffitt, assistant denner.

Jack Christensen was awarded a two-year universal attendance.

Photographs Tell Story

An exhibit of photographs depicting "One Thousand Years of Christianity in Poland" will open at the Glass Church on the Palos Verdes Peninsula Monday, July 4.

The exhibit, featuring photographs by Jan Sampol of San Pedro, tells of the struggle of the Poles to maintain their religious convictions.

There is no charge for admission to the exhibit, which will remain in the library of the Wayfarers' Chapel for six weeks.
